A Tribute To Mr. E. Steele Drake
by Lucille Osoinach Porter
I have lost a neighbor and a friend—with the passing of Mr. Drake. I feel that a link has been removed from my chain of life. Mr. Drake loved children very dearly—always a recommendation of good qualities—and my recollection of him dates back to my childhood—over fifty years ago. Though we did not live too near the "Drakes"—our families were friends of long standing and my sister and I were allowed to visit Mr. and Mrs. Drake quite often. To us, it was a great treat—we knew that it meant getting some of the delicious pastries that Mrs. Drake was famous for and also it meant that Mr. Drake would swing us on the old-fashioned swing that was always hanging from his magnificent oak—the same oak that I have been privileged to look at each day for the past twenty odd years from my office window. Another loveable trait that Mr. Drake possessed was to always have a bag of "Chocolate 'nicks" and chocolate covered almonds in his pocket and he delighted in sharing them with "his children."
"As the years passed our lives did not touch so closely but for twenty-three years now we have been neighbors and a day was not complete unless Mr. Drake came over to our office several times for a chocolate milk or just a little chat.
He was a great lover of flowers and we always shared our first blooms with each other and profited by each other's knowledge of the subject. He took pride in his yard and shared the thought with me that "one is closer to God's heart in a garden than any where else on earth."
His affection for his home—the home to which he brought his bride and in which they spent so many happy years was really outstanding and to him I am sure it was a satisfaction that he had that home last year.

Seedlings Should Be Ordered As Soon As Possible, Says Forester

As seedling supplies are diminishing daily, Area Forester Marion Parker advises all who plan to plant trees this winter to submit orders as soon as possible. Already several species have been completely sold out at the Forestry-Commission nurseries, added Parker, who stated today that longleaf pine, Scotch pine, spruce pine, black locust, sweetgum, cottonwood, green ash, yellow poplar and cherrybark oak are no longer available.

Still available in quantity are loblolly pine, slash pine, shortleaf pine, red cedar and bald cypress. Order forms are available from the Area Forestry Commission through Area Forester Parker at Bay St. Louis and also from County Agent.

Each landowner may receive 1,000 free seedlings, paying only a 35 cent transportation fee. Additional seedlings may be purchased at $4.50 per thousand for all species except red cedar which is $3.00 per thousand. Orders for 25,000 seedlings or more may be picked up at the nursery if desired.

Services available to land owners from the Commission include examination of land to be planted and preparation of a complete planting prescription for the landowner. This procedure will insure selecting the proper species for the land to be planted, spacing trees properly for best production, ordering the right number of trees for the acreage to be planted, proper planting methods to increase survival growth, and proper handling of seedlings prior to planting to insure that trees are alive and vigorous when planted. It has been found that following a good planting prescription will increase the future returns from tree farming and reduce present planting costs.

Landowners desiring this service should contact Area Forester Parker at Bay St. Louis at the earliest opportunity before the onset of severe fire danger.

James Victor Mocklin, Jr., Died Suddenly

James Victor Mocklin, Jr., died suddenly Saturday, October 24, at his residence in Metairie, La. He was the husband of Irma Carver, father of Mrs. Jules Seal, Keath and James Mocklin III, and the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Mocklin.

Survivors also include four sisters, Mae Mocklin, Mrs. Melva O'Brien, Mrs. Rhea Zietmann, Mrs. Lucie Ponce; three brothers, Stewart, Gilbert, and Evan Mocklin and four grandchildren.

Mr. Mocklin, who maintained a summer home in Waveland, was a member of St. Clare's Holy Name Society. He was connected with the Mocklin Brothers Roofing Company in New Orleans, a member of St. Catherine of Sienna Holy Name Society and Knights of Columbus Council No. 2778.

Funeral services were held from the Jefferson home of Tharp-Sontheimer-Thary, Inc., Metairie, Sunday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock, followed by religious rites at St. Catherine of Sienna Church with the Rev. Dowling officiating.

Palbearers were William Mocklin, Herbert Schenk, Edward Mocklin, Harry Carver, Charles O'Brien, Jr. and Ivan Mocklin.

Attending the funeral from Waveland were Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Martin, Mr. and Mrs. George Stolz and daughter, Georgette, Mrs. Edward Fayard, Mayor Garfield Ladner, C. O. Dufour and P. H. Kammer.

CHEESE MONTH!

This is the time of year for all good cheeses to stand up and be recognized, for this is November Cheese Month! Here in America we are extremely proud of our cheeses, for our country is now producing some of the finest cheese in the entire world. We have 10 cheese plants in Mississippi. Enjoy your Mississippi cheeses. In sandwiches, in salads, soups and desserts. Many other ways, too.

MILK FOR EVERYONE!

After youth, the body needs fewer carbohydrates, starches, sugar, fats, etc., or about a decrease of 5% for every 10 years. But, the need for protein remains the same or increases. A middle-aged or older person should use more dairy products instead of filling up on fats, starches and sugars. Probably no other food element keeps the bones so young and so free from disease and aches and pains as does calcium. The cheapest and best source of calcium is milk, where it is most readily available to the body. Milk is necessary for all ages, all through life.

SSC Annual Homecoming Dance Held Saturday Night, October 24th.

The annual Homecoming Dance was held in the St. Stanislaus gym on Saturday, October 24, from 8 to 11:30. The Red Counts of Jackson, Miss., played varied pieces, from rock-and-roll to semi-popular, to a group of about 350.

The gym itself had all the appearances of a ballroom. Various colored streamers ran across the top to within 20 feet of the center. From this point, alternating red and white streamers converged upward to the center of the gym. Hanging from this spot was a 7 foot diameter balloon sprinkled with silver dust.

The bleachers on one side of the gym were removed and replaced by tables which were also arranged across the front and down the opposite side of the gym. Each table had a hurricane lamp with a red candle burning in it.

The stage, with a ballroom background, was flooded with blue lights.

The entire program was planned and executed by the Confraternity of the Sacred Heart.

Mrs. C. C. McDonald, Sr. Addresses PTA Group

Mrs. C. C. McDonald, Sr., discussed parliamentary procedure with a group of PTA members at a meeting at Bay High School Monday afternoon.

Present at the meeting were Mesdames E. N. Carroll, president of Bay High PTA, Mrs. W. P. McCutcheon, H. H. Shattuck, W. R. Pitcairn and M. A. Gowen.

Will Mississippi Traffic Death Tolls Be Reduced For This Year?

Will Mississippi's traffic death toll be reduced this year? Yes, if state safety officials and the Highway Patrol can get the necessary public support.

Calling for a slowing down on Mississippi highways, Public Safety Commissioner Tom Scarborough this week said the state's traffic death toll can be cut below the 1958 count.

With only two months remaining in 1959, the traffic death count for the year is "even Steven" with last year (424 to 424 on October 28). This marks the first time since January 1 that the official Highway Patrol death tally has been the same on corresponding days.

"There is no doubt in my mind now," Commissioner Scarborough said, "that our accident death rate can be cut below last year's toll. It is the Highway Patrol's intention to do its best to see that these deaths are curbed."

The Patrol head explained that

Students Of North Central School To Be Landscaped

Mr. Henry J. Smith, Assistant Extension Horticulturist, State College, Miss., working jointly with Howard F. Simmons, County Agent, John W. Smith, Assistant County Agent and Gloria C. Mauldin, Home Demonstration Agent, spent Tuesday at the North Central School working on plans and blue prints for landscaping the entire school grounds.

The high school student body heard a discussion by Mr. Smith on landscaping and what it can do to any building regardless of age and design. He told the group how much a good landscape program could add to the beauty of the North Central School.

The group then adjourned to the front of the building where Mr. Smith further discussed the use of various and sundry types of plants and how some would be better to use than others. He stated that for the type of landscaping done at the school, plants should be used that would require a minimum of care and attention.

D. J. Martin, Vocational Instructor and the boys who put the stobs down will plant the shrubbery at a later date under the supervision of the newly organized North Central P.T.A.

At a future date Mr. Smith will deliver to the North Central School a complete set of blue prints with the long range goal to completely landscape the entire area.

Girl Scouts Celebrate Birthday Of Juliette Low, Founder, Oct. 28

Brownies, Girl Scouts and Senior Mariners of the community turned out en masse on Wednesday afternoon at Bay High gym to celebrate the birthday of Juliette Low, founder of Girl Scouting in America. The occasion was the annual World Friendship Tea and special Court of Awards.

Participating in the ceremony were Color Guard members Gloria Kimmel Sally Hubbard, Mary Lagarde, Nancy McDonald, and Sandra Miller.

Taking part in the program were Mrs. Frances Shippey, Neighborhood chairman; Mrs. R. G. Hubbard, Mrs. J. L. Ansley, and featured speaker, Miss Edith Traub, who gave impressions of her recent trip to the Colorado, Round-Up.

In special ceremonies, the following Brownies were invested: Troop No. 100 (Mrs. Price Western and Mrs. Birch Bankston, leaders) Nancy Bilbo, Janet Kidd, Sandra Summers, Sheila Stevenson, Suzanne Stevens, Cynthia Krankey, Mary Beth Cardin, Troop No. 113 (Mrs. J. W. Clark and Mrs. Dick Mastayer, leaders) Susan Becker, Mary Jane Chapman, Phyllis Hackett, Noel Butterworth, Charla Marshall, Wendy McDonald, Mary Shattuck, Ellen Simms, and Janie Whitlock.

Intermediate Scouts receiving badges were: Troop No. 6 (Mrs. Marion Beal, leader) Gay Lynn Asher, Mary Toni Ladner, Patsy Elliott, Peggy Givens, and Annette Ward. Troop No. 61 (Mrs. R. G. Hubbard, leader) Marian Blaise, Edna Bourgeois, Sally Hubbard, Donna Lynn Johnston, Peggy Monahan, Patricia Wimlish.

Following the parade of Pennies for the World Friendship Fund, the girls enjoyed refreshments. Games were served by the Senior Mariners of Troop No. 1. Tables were appropriately decorated in scout colors with fern, orange pyracantha and pompon chrysanthemums.

General chairman of the arrangements committee was Mrs. Merlin Markel. She was assisted by Mrs. Leroy Luke and Mrs. Albert Grass.

speed continues to be the number one contributing factor in state traffic deaths, and speed law enforcement will be the Patrol's primary objective during the remainder of the year.

State motorists are urged to support the drive to reduce highway mishaps by driving safely, alertly, and . . . slower.

Many farmers in Hancock County are improving their farm income as well as conserve their soil and water resources if they will take advantage of the opportunities offered through the Agricultural Conservation Program.

Mr. F. L. Lee, Chairman of the Hancock County ASC Committee, stated this week. The farm leader points out that it is the policy of the Hancock County ASC Committee to encourage the performance of needed conservation practices in low income farms where there are soil, water and woodland resources that are not being put to the best use.

The 1960 Agricultural Conservation Program for Hancock County is designed to help these farmers get started in a sound conservation program.

The Agricultural Conservation Program is one of the major programs of the U. S. Department of Agriculture which shares with farmers the cost of carrying out approved conservation practices. For those farmers who have not participated in the 1960 program and desire to get started in conservation farming in a small way, the ACP will pay for most of the out-of-pocket cost for materials needed to carry out the practice.

Additional information concerning practices that farmers can carry out under the 1960 ACP may be obtained by contacting the ASC county office in the Agricultural Building, Bay St. Louis, Miss., or from any of the local agricultural workers.

HUNTING SAFETY
Remember to treat every gun as if it were loaded. Never aim a gun at anything you do not wish to kill. Before loading your gun, make sure that the barrel is clear of obstructions. Never carry a loaded gun into camp, into your car, into your home or any inhabited area. Keep safety in mind when hunting and good luck!

Annual Farm Bureau Meeting, Held October 26 At Leetown Center

The annual Hancock County Farm Bureau meeting was held October 26, at Leetown Community Center. The meeting was called to order by James Rester, president, who introduced Mr. Henry Rutledge, District Fieldman for the Mississippi Farm Bureau Federation.

Officers for the new year elected were: Bob DeGravelles, Jr., President; Fitzhugh Lee, Vice President; and Mrs. J. P. Rousseau, Secretary.

Directors: Beat 1 (to be elected); Beat 2, C. P. Slay; Beat 3, Johnson, Shaw; Beat 4, Otho Rester; and Beat 5, H. L. Turnipseed.

Mrs. J. P. Rousseau who was selected chairman of the Farm Bureau division, was delegated to attend the Mississippi Annual Farm Bureau meeting to be held in November in Jackson. The newly-elected president was designated as the voting delegate to the annual meeting in Jackson with Joe Rousseau as alternate voting delegate.

The group instructed the voting delegate to go to Jackson "uninstructed" as to whom the county organization would support for the Mississippi distinguished Service Award an annual event.

Mr. Rester introduced Mr. O'Neal the Farm Bureau Insurance Representative who discussed the insurance program and informed the group that Hancock County would be consolidated with Harrison County rather than Pearl River County as in the past. He also informed them that the office is in the Coastal Cooperative Building in Gulfport.

Hancock County

Here it is the first week in November. Long with that realization comes the thought of most of us, "It isn't long now until Thanksgiving and Christmas. I've got to get busy on plans for food and gifts."

Your favorite cake is always a part of holiday planning for family and friends, isn't it? If you are one who has found some early baking that goes into the freezer, helpful, you'll be especially interested in some USDA research on how well different kinds of cake keep in frozen storage.

FROZEN CAKES
Generally most all kinds do keep well when frozen. Chocolate and yellow layer cakes keep "strictly fresh" slightly longer than angel food, chiffon or pound cake. After a month's storage at zero degrees F, the chocolate and yellow layer cake rated better than day-old unfrozen cakes.

Angel food cakes frozen for two weeks rated better than day old unfrozen cakes. Those frozen three weeks rated just as good as day old unfrozen cakes.

Criffon cakes kept their freshness a slightly shorter time when frozen. Their quality was equal to that of day-old cakes at the end of the second week.

Pound cakes reacted somewhat differently to freezing. For the first few days the quality of the texture decreased, but later seemed to recover. After a few weeks at zero, there was little difference between the frozen and fresh cakes. After four days in the freezer pound cakes firmed and became mealy and crumbly. After five weeks these unattractive qualities had disappeared almost completely.

The taste panel in this research noticed chiffon cakes begin to lose flavor compared to fresh cake after 1 week in the freezer, angel food cakes after two weeks, chocolate layer cakes after 3 weeks and yellow layer cakes after 8 weeks.

The people doing the tasting and testing on these cakes are trained to do this sort of thing. The scientists working with them said that some of the differences in flavor and texture they found would not be noticed in commercial and home use.

NOVEMBER PLENTIFUL FOODS
Turkey... pork... cranberries... Those foods sound like Thanksgiving and holidays just as cakes do. They're heading the plentiful foods list for this month. They should be good buys and in good supply in your grocery stores.

Other plentiful include potatoes, broiler fryer, filberts, apples, almonds, lard, onions, rice, sweet potatoes and dry beans.

Registration will be conducted in the Lobby of the Mississippi Center for Continuation Study from 9:00 until 9:30 a. m. on November 21. Immediately following the registration there will be an official welcoming from the University.

The conference will adjourn at 2:30 p. m. after the proper announcements have been made. Requests for information should be directed to the Department of Conferences and Institutes, University, Mississippi.

Production of creamed cottage cheese received over 65 million lbs during July, 1959, 25% above the previous five year average for July.

University, Miss., Oct. 25
The University announced a week-end symposium on "Careers of Nursing" to be held on campus, Nov. 21. This one-day conference is designed to explain the various programs and services that nursing offers. Information is extended to all interested people who are concerned with the advancement and progress of nursing in Mississippi.

Some of the topics that will be presented are: "What Nursing Holds For You," "Nursing Profession Offers Variety," (a) Hospital Nursing, (b) Public Health Nursing, (c) Industrial Nursing, (d) Nursing Education, (e) Office Nursing and (f) Government Nursing.

"The Community and the Counselors Consider Nursing as a Career," a panel discussion about "Current Programs in Nursing" answers for Counselors and Students, and a "Parade of Schools" in which the student nurses from the various Nursing Schools of Mississippi will take part.

The program personnel include: Mrs. Edna Roberts, Field Advisory Nurse, Mississippi State Board of Health, Sards; Mrs. Anna Musgrave, Hattiesburg; Miss LeNelle Blackston, Assistant Director, Nursing Service, University Medical Center, Jackson; Miss Louise Holmes, Director of Public Health Nursing, Mississippi State Board of Health, Jackson; Mrs. Alma F. Crighton, Chairman, Occupational Health Nurse Section, Miss. State Nurses Association, Clarksdale; Miss Christine Maxey, Instructor, Northeast Mississippi Junior College, Booneville; Mrs. Carrie Weisman, Supervising Nurse, Doctors Gamble Brothers and Archer Clinic, Greenville; Lieutenant Laura Spence, Navy Nurse Corps Representative, Naval Recruiting Area, Birmingham, Alabama; Miss Annie Margaret Tucker, Nurse Education Consultant, Institutions of Higher Learning, Jackson; Miss Rhobia Taylor, Field Consultant, Committee on Careers, National League for Nursing, Inc., New York City; Mrs. J. R. Patterson, National Chairman of Health and Welfare Committee, Federation of Women's Clubs, Pontotoc; Mr. Calvin Bruce Gurner, Instructor in Education and Counselor for the University High School, Oxford; Miss Bernice White, State Supervisor, Practical Nurse Education, Mississippi State Department of Vocational Education, Jackson; Miss Martha E. Keaton, Head, Department of Nursing, Northeast Mississippi Junior College, Booneville; Miss Christine Boyette, Director, School of Nursing, Greenwood LeFlore Hospital, Greenwood; Miss Christine L. Oglevee, Dean of the School of Nursing, University Medical Center, Jackson; and Miss Carolyn Schultz, President of the Mississippi Association of Student Nurses, St. Dominic's Hospital, Jackson.

Miss Betty Younger and the Rebel Riders returned last week from Pensacola where they participated in the Oakfield horse show. Performing in the square dance on horseback were Richard Holmes of New Orleans, W. G. Hinton, Jackson, Miss., Fellers Drury and Miss Younger, flagmen and eight couples, Cheryl Seuzeneau and Ellen Allison, Jan Madden of Hattiesburg and Mary Lou Harrington, Carriere, Miss.; David Karl and Tommy Mayfield; Gary Burrows and Patsy Miller, Sibyl Taaffe of New Orleans and Chuck Esau; Addie Mae Lagasses and Perry Lagasse; Janice Noto, Pass Christian and Dixie Ashman; Sonny Johnson, Gulfport, and Rip Kennedy of Waveland.

For their afternoon performance each member of the drill team was awarded a blue ribbon and the team received an 18 inch trophy for the night performance.

Rip Kennedy, Club president, was winner of the men's stake race award; Cheryl Seuzeneau placed third in the pleasure riding class and Miss Younger placed third in trail class.

The riders, in ages from 9 to 17 years, were trained by Miss Younger.

Lakeshore Garden Club Has Regular Meeting
The Lakeshore Garden Club held its regular monthly meeting, Thursday, October 15, at the home of Mrs. Ruth Landry with Mrs. Polly Mazarakis as co-hostesses.

The project for the year, entertaining the Old Age Home on Lunbar Avenue, was discussed and a committee was named to obtain additional information for planning the entertainment.

It was announced that Mesdames Havard Burleigh, Clarence Becker and David Casey had tied for the largest number of awards given during the year. A winner will be decided at the next meeting based on an entry consisting of a Thanksgiving or Christmas arrangement.

Other award winners were, horticulture Mrs. Bert Ladner; potted Mrs. Becker; miniature, Mrs. Burleigh; dried materials, Mrs. Joe Broussard; wild and cultivated, Mrs. Becker. Mrs. Bert Ladner won the entrance prize.

Halloween was the theme used in decorations for the Italian luncheon following the business session.

An arrangement of a large ghost and corn stalks hovered over the luncheon tables which were covered with orange and black cloths. Decorated with Halloween motifs and centered with orange and black candles.

Attending the meeting and luncheon were Mesdames Eva Ladner, Rose Richmond, Helen Bordages, Grace Bordages, Ann Hutchinson, Bella Peterson, Edna Peterson, Olga Mastayer, Elaine Davis, Ruble Bordages, Betty Dorn, Ben Merchant, Gertrude Robertson, Rae Newsom, Bert Ladner, Landry, Mazarakis, Burleigh, Becker and Rousseau and a guest, Mrs. Frank Chase of New Orleans.

INTERESTING FACTS ABOUT MISSISSIPPI
Mississippi is now the fifth largest producer of broiler chickens in the nation; has set all time world records for production of two cash crops, cotton and oats; has the largest wall-board manufacturing plant in the world; has the longest strip of man-made beach in the world on the Gulf Coast; is one of the few states in the nation to have both deep water ports and river lines; and has the largest agricultural plantation in the world. Another interesting fact about Mississippi currently being emphasized is that the rate of economic growth in percentage is the nation in twenty-one separate categories for the past twenty years.

MORE FOOD FOR LESS WORK TODAY

The factory worker in our country can buy a standard monthly basket of farm foods for less than 40 hours of work today. This is a reduction of 11 hours, or 22% from the 51 hours it took in 1952. As an example, in 1952 a quart of milk required 8.1 minutes of labor to purchase, and in 1959 only 6.7 minutes of labor were needed. A pound of butter had dropped from 30.5 minutes of labor in 1952 to 20.7 minutes in 1959.

Data so far in 1959 indicate consumption of fluid milk and cream combined has been a little larger than a year ago on a total basis, though probably about the same per capita. Consumption of skim milk products has shown an increase so far in 1959, as has the use of milk and cream mixtures. Fluid milk and cream accounted for nearly $7 billion in dairy sales in 1958. The per capita consumption of cheese in 1958 reached a record high of 8 1/2 pounds.
